Tages

Anavon Global Equity Long/Short UCITS Fund (the “Sub-Fund”) a sub-fund of Tages International Funds SICAV, managed by MontLake Management Limited (the “Manager”) Class M-EUR Shares (LU1425365795)

Objectives and Investment Policy

The objective of the Sub-Fund is to achieve maximum capital appreciation commensurate with reasonable risk. In pursuing this objective, the Investment Manager uses fundamental analysis to select long and short investments primarily in equity securities.

The Sub-Fund will invest, either directly or through the use of financial derivative instruments, in equity securities.

The Sub-Fund invests in companies located around the world with its main focus on developed markets that operate in a wide range of industries.

The Sub-Fund's exposure to developed markets may reach up to a maximum of 200% of the net assets.

The Sub-Fund may also obtain on an ancillary basis (i.e. up to 10% of the net assets) direct or indirect exposure to China through investments in (i) securities listed on the Hong Kong stock exchange, in (ii) investment funds having exposure to China or in (iii) China A-Shares through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect program. To increase the performance potential of the sub-fund while mitigating general market risk, the Sub-Fund employs a hedged approach, taking short positions as well as long positions. Over the long term, the Investment Manager aims to achieve returns in the Sub-Fund that are higher than those implied by broad market indices while assuming less risk than that inherent in a market portfolio.

The Sub-Fund will invest in financial derivative instruments to achieve its investment objective and for the purposes of hedging. These instruments may include, but are not limited to, futures, options, contracts for difference, total return swaps, forward contracts on financial instruments and options on such contracts.

The Sub-Fund will invest in debt securities, cash and cash equivalents, units of UCITs and UCIs, including money market funds, and in assets denominated in any currency. When required by the conditions on the financial markets, the Sub-Fund may invest on a temporary basis up to all its assets in term deposits or money market instruments in order to protect investors' interests.

The leverage of the Sub-Fund (calculated as the sum of the notional of the financial derivative instruments used) is expected to range between 100% and 200% of the Sub-Fund's NAV. The leverage of the Sub-Fund may be higher due to additional hedging requirements.

In certain market conditions the sub-fund may hold up to 100% of its net assets in cash and other instruments similar to cash.

Investors may buy, switch and redeem shares of the Sub-Fund every day that is a bank business day in Luxembourg, London and the United States.

Income received will be reinvested.

The reference currency of the Sub-Fund is USD and the currency of this share class is EUR.

The Sub-Fund is actively managed meaning that the investments are made on a fully discretionary basis. The Sub-Fund may measure its performance relative to the MSCI All Country World Index and the HRFU Equity Hedge Index for reference or investor communication purposes. The Sub-Fund does not operate any form of target to outperform a benchmark index.

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk and reward indicator illustrates where the Sub-Fund is positioned in terms of its possible risk and reward. The higher the Sub-Fund's position on this scale, the greater the possible reward, but also the greater risk of losing money.

This indicator is based on historical data or simulated data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Sub-Fund.

The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time. This indicator is not a measure of the risk that you may lose the amount you have invested. We have calculated the Sub-Fund's risk and reward category, as shown above, using the methods set by EU regulations.

The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.

The Sub-Fund is in category 5, which means that the risk for value changes in the Sub-Fund is high.

The risk-reward indicator does not take account of the following risks of investing in the Sub-Fund:

Liquidity Risk - due to the fact that the level of investments is made in financial instruments that could have a low level of liquidity in some circumstances.

Counterparty Risk - due to the fact that the Sub-Fund has material investment exposure through contracts with third parties.

Derivative Risk - Use of derivatives results in higher chances of loss due to the use of leverage, or borrowing. Derivatives allow investors to earn large returns from small movements in the underlying asset's price. However, investors could lose large amounts if the price of the underlying asset moves against them significantly.

Currency Risk - due to the possibility that exchange rate movements may negatively affect the value of the Sub-Fund's investments.

General risks relating to investments in China - Investments in this geographic region are subject to restrictive local regulations that are liable to be modified unilaterally. China's legal system is based on recent laws and regulations whose applicability and scope still remain poorly defined, particularly as regards exchange rates, taxation or market access. These regulations also permit the Chinese authorities to exercise their discretionary powers in the interpretation of the regulations, increasing uncertainty as regards their application. In addition, the Sub-fund may also invest in China A-Shares through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect program subject to any applicable regulatory limits. Additional risks are applicable when investing in China A-Shares.

For a more detailed explanation of risks, please refer to the Risk Factors section of the prospectus and Risk Profile section of the relevant supplement.

Charges

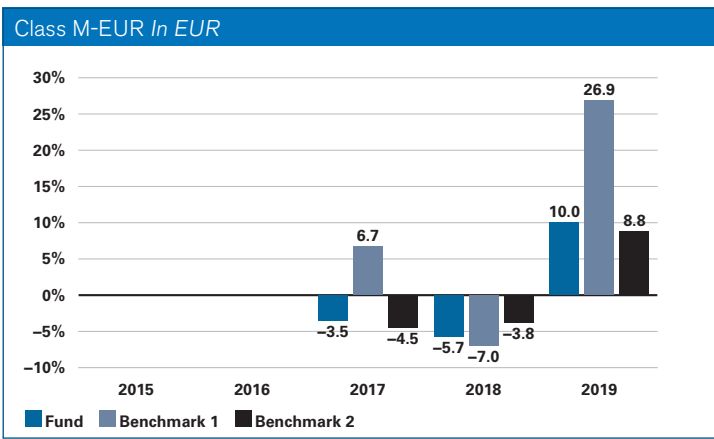

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the Sub-Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

One-off charges taken before or after you invest
Entry charge	Up to 3.00%
